

YOUR PERIOD doesn't have to be a sentence.

A new means of treating excessive menstrual bleeding now provides women with a safe and highly effective means of taking control of their heavy menstrual flow. Through an FDA-approved, minimally invasive outpatient procedure, your heavy period can now be eliminated or significantly reduced. This treatment does not affect your natural hormonal balance, and it is covered by most insurers.

We now include this treatment method in our practice.

To schedule an informational appointment, please call:

Physician/Practice name

Address 1

Address 2

City, State Zip

Practice phone number

Practice e-mail address and/or Web site URL